

Miræus Lectures

of the Flemish Society for Bookhistory

Programme 2010-2011

- Seventh lecture 27 August 2010, 18h-19h30
Bertrum MacDonald Dalhousie University, Halifax, Canada
Creation of Scientific Knowledge: Evidence from Scientists Reading in the Late Nineteenth Century
- Eighth lecture Wednesday 3 November 2010, 18h-19h30
Erik Kwakkel Universiteit Leiden
Age of Innovation: The Manuscript Book in the Twelfth-Century Renaissance
- Ninth lecture Wednesday 24 November 2010, 18h-19h30
Alistair McCleery Napier University, Edinburgh
Director of the Scottish Center for the Book
Maintaining the Cultural Exception: Publishing Literature in a Global Marketplace
- Tenth lecture Wednesday 6 April 2011, 18h-19h30
Venue Plantin Moretus Museum
David Shaw Consortium of European Research Libraries
Publishing the classics in 16th century Antwerp
- Eleventh lecture Wednesday 4 or 11 May 2011, 18h-19h30
Yann Sordet Conservateur en chef du département Réserve
Bibliothèque Sainte-Geneviève, Paris
The edition of the Imitatio Christi of Thomas a Kempis (15th-18th century)

An initiative in cooperation with Erfgoedbibliotheek Hendrik Conscience
Vereniging van Antwerpse Bibliofielen
Museum Plantin Moretus